

IRS 2009 EZ Women's Empowerment International Supplemental Information

EIN 41-2172771

Part I Revenue, Expenses, and Changes in Net Assets or Fund Balances

Expenses Line 10 – Grants and Similar Amounts Paid

Charitable Activity Class

Donations were made to three microfinance organizations, all of which are 501(c)(3) charitable organizations:

#1 Grantee's Name and Address:

Grameen de la Frontera
1330 Orange Avenue #300
Coronado, CA 92118

Donation Amount: $20,000

Purpose: To provide small business loans to poor women in southern Sonora, Mexico, to start or expand their small business.

#2 Grantee's Name and Address:

Adelante Foundation
P.O. Box 4473
Englewood, CO 80155

Donation Amount: $20,000

Purpose: To provide small business loans to poor women in Honduras to start or expand their small businesses.

#3 Grantee's Name and Address:

International Rescue Committee San Diego
5348 University Ave. Suite 205
San Diego, CA 92105

Donation Amount: $31,000

Purpose: To cover the salary of a part-time staff person who serves as Director of the WE Center for STAR (Support, Training, and Assistance to Refugee) Women within the IRC, and to cover the costs of small grants for business start-ups. This Center provides business services and small loans to poor San Diego area refugee women, to provide them with the tools and funds they need to plan, establish, and develop their own small businesses.

Expenses Line 16 – Other Expenses

Insurance	$2,379
Supplies	1,047
Memberships	150
Bank Fees	295
Govt. Fees	70

Part III Statement of Program Service Accomplishments

Primary Exempt Purpose: Providing donations to international, nonprofit, U.S. tax-exempt microfinance organizations, which use the donations from Women's Empowerment International to provide small loans and business services to the world's poorest women, so they can start and expand small businesses, and work their way out of poverty.

Part III, Line 31- Other Program Services

Provide educational and membership programs through newsletters, information kits, talks, website tours, and radio interviews. . . Over 1,000 members, donors, and prospects received newsletters, an estimated 1,000 people received information kits and heard talks, and about 30 people took tours. – Annual meeting - $1,174; Educational programs (events, speakers, materials, etc.) - $472

Part IV, List of Officers, Directors and Key Employees

Laurie Martin, Assistant Treasurer 1/1-12/31, also served as Interim Treasurer 7/1-12/31.