Women's Empowerment International Forum

Monday, July 26, 2010, 6 p.m. to 8 p.m.

Joyce Beers Community Center

At this free event, you will learn more about the work of Women's Empowerment -- including updates on our projects in Mexico and Honduras and the WE Center for STAR Women in City Heights.

We'll also report on progress toward WE's 2010 goals, our new educational curriculum and results of our April members' forum. WE members will also be asked to vote on bylaw changes.

Learn more about WE.

Meet the WE Board, supporters, volunteers and friends at this informative and fun event!

Light refreshments.

RSVP: womens.empowerment@cox.net or 858-486-6466

Directions to The Joyce Beers Community Center, 4045 Vermont St., San Diego, 92103.

Take CA-163 to the UNIVERSITY AVENUE exit. Turn East onto UNIVERSITY AVENUE and continue 5 blocks East to VERMONT AVENUE. Turn LEFT onto VERMONT AVENUE. The Joyce Beers Community Center is two blocks past University Avenue, on the right, between the Terra Restaurant and the Aladdin Restaurant. Free parking is available in the shopping center's underground parking lot. The parking lot's entrance is just ahead and to the left.

Women's Empowerment is a San Diego-based, volunteer-driven nonprofit that provides microfinance loans and business services to women living in poverty so they can start businesses and improve the quality of life for themselves and their families.
